Avoid surprises on your monthly bill

Help reduce your natural gas usage

Visit socalgas.com to learn even more ways you can continue to be energy efficient and save money.

The calculation of the projected next bill is based on the same rate of natural gas usage in the remainder of the month as the rate it was consumed in the period to date for the month. The Bill Tracker Alerts are made available solely for informational purposes, and are not guaranteed or warranted to provide solutions to any specific situation.
