Seminars

Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas®), Pacific Gas & Electric Company® (PG&E), Southern California Edison® (SCE) and San Diego Gas & Electric Company (SDG&E®) are pleased to present this Quarterly 2013 Calendar of Events, which showcases a variety of seminars and events that help California foodservice professionals save money and energy. Whether you own a restaurant, a catering business, a large hotel or other foodservice business, we hope you and your staff take advantage of these energy efficiency seminars and events. A few of the seminar topics for this year include: Foodservice Trends 2013; Energy Efficient Lighting; Do-It-Yourself Energy Audit; The Fryer Challenge; Energy Efficient Ice Machines; Design of Hot Water Systems; Kitchen Ventilation: Tips, Tricks and Technologies and much more.

Rebates for Equipment Replacement and New Construction

If you are looking into purchasing new energy-efficient foodservice equipment or replacing old equipment for your facility, now is the time! We have valuable rebates available on many types of equipment. The rebates help offset the initial equipment costs, and the high-efficiency equipment reduces your operating costs year after year. For rebate applications and qualifying equipment lists, visit our websites noted throughout this calendar.

Online tools

Take advantage of the many online tools and resources we offer, such as: Do-It-Yourself Energy Surveys, Equipment Selection Guide, Life-Cycle Cost Calculators, Food Safety Charts, Equipment Maintenance for Optimum-Efficiency Guide, and more. We also offer information on all available rebates and seminar schedules.

Our Commitment to Service

SoCalGas, PG&E, SCE, and SDG&E take pride in our long history of providing exceptional customer service, including our programs that promote energy efficiency.
