

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT - PART VI - MEMORANDUM ACCOUNTS Sheet 1
CURTAILMENT VIOLATION PENALTY ACCOUNT (CVPA)

The CVPA is a memorandum account. The purpose of this account is to record actual revenues from the assessment of penalties for violation of curtailment, and expenses associated with installation of electronic metering for curtailment monitoring.

Commencing on August 1, 1991, Utility shall maintain CVPA by making entries at the end of each month as follows:

- a. A credit entry equal to all curtailment penalty charges collected, and
- b. A debit entry equal to recorded expenditures for installation of electronic metering for purpose of curtailment monitoring.
