Updates to the Energy Efficiency Rebates for Business (EERB) Program Effective April 2023

Applications Now Online

Any commercial, public, industrial, or agricultural customer with an active, valid SoCalGas account can apply for a rebate under the EERB program.

For 2023, the application process for rebates under the EERB program has moved online.

For details on the program and application requirements, and to access the Rebate Guide and online application form, visit Business Equipment Rebates.

Some equipment categories have been expanded and some rebate amounts have changed.

The Rebate Guide lists qualifying equipment categories, energy efficiency requirements and rebate amounts.

In some categories, additional tiers of qualifying equipment with increased energy efficiency have been added.

For latest rebate information, access the Rebate Guide.

The Energy Efficiency Rebates for Business (EERB) program is funded by California utility customers and is administered by Southern California Gas Company (SoCalGas) under the auspices of the California Public Utilities Commission. Program funds, including any funds utilized for rebates or incentives, will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis until such funds are no longer available. The EERB program may be modified or terminated without prior notice. Eligibility requirements apply. The selection, purchase and ownership of goods and services are the sole responsibility of the customer. SoCalGas makes no representation as to the safety, reliability and/or efficiency of selected goods and services. SoCalGas makes no warranty, whether expressed or implied, including warranty of merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose, use or application of selected goods and services. SoCalGas does not recommend, endorse, qualify, guarantee or make any representations or warranties regarding the services, work, quality, financial stability or performance of any vendor listed in the Trade Professional Directory, or the products and services they offer.
